CAMPUS LEADERSHIP PROGRAMME

EMPOWERING STUDENTS, CREATING LEADERS, TRANSFORMING INTERFAITH RELATIONS

The Campus Leadership Programme gives students the skills and experience needed to create brave interfaith spaces that in turn will create social change and build a culture of inclusivity at their university. The programme empowers student leaders to form relationships across faith communities.

Campus Leaders gain:

- Development of leadership skills
- Residential training and workshops
- Interfaith mentor
- Confidence in interfaith dialogue
- Skills and experience to become interfaith ambassadors

Applications are open!
Go to www.ccj.org.uk/campus-leadership to access the application form.

Applications close 9th May!

Created and resourced by interfaith charity The Council of Christians and Jews (CCJ)

campusleadership@ccj.org.uk

@campusleadershipccj

www.ccj.org.uk/campus-leadership

07355 940026